

SCM Lines Announces Additional Sailings to Guanta, Venezuela

July 2012

SCM Lines, a leader in ocean transportation services to Venezuela from Tampico, Mexico, Houston, Texas and Port Everglades, Florida announces a new twice-monthly (every two weeks) service to Guanta, Venezuela.

In response to increased demand for shipping capacity from South Florida, SCM Lines is pleased to announce that effective July 31, 2012 an additional departure from Port Everglades, FL to Guanta, Venezuela will be added to our already established schedule.

With a sailing every two weeks, SCM Lines is committed to offering an unparalleled all water service direct to Guanta from South Florida.

Our customers can now enjoy the following benefits:

- The fastest, connection from South Florida to Guanta, Venezuela with a 5 day transit time, no transshipment; allowing for improved cargo flow and just-in-time inventory management.
- Increased options for cargo pick up and discharge.
- Dependable departures and arrivals.
- Competitive ocean based rates and contract availability.

Thank you for choosing us as your carrier of choice to Guanta and Palua (Puerto Ordaz), Venezuela. Please contact Jennifer Paz or Mirielle Rodriguez, our U.S. Customer Service representatives at: 305-471-0059 or visit our new website at www.scmlines.com for updated schedules and documentation cut-offs.

Complete contact listings, including telephone, fax numbers and email address information can be found 24/7/365 on our website on the Contacts page.